

RESOURCES FOR REFUGEES FROM UKRAINE WHO LOVE TO READ

Below we have listed some resources for any fellow book worm who recently fled Ukraine and is now looking for eBooks, digital libraries, audio books and more, all in English and/or Ukraine.

Apart from these digital resources, we want to point out that you can always find books in Russian and English in our library!

1. eBooks

The organisation OSVITORIA that focuses on education for children, has recently published a list of eBooks for kids that are free to download. You can find the list and download links, by following this:

<https://osvitoria.media/opinions/knyzhka-zaspokoyuye-shho-pochytaty-dytyni-poky-tryvaye-vijna/>

27 free e-books can be found on the website of this Ukrainian publishing house called „An Old Lion“, where they offer books for all ages. <https://starylev.com.ua/about-us>

BONUS: If you are volunteering and helping Ukrainian refugees right now, you can download a dictionary here, in case you are interested in learning some Ukraine, or at least know a few words/phrases to help with communication: <https://www.reise-know-how.de/de/artikel/e-books-zur-kommunikation-gefluechteten-fuer-1-cent-51012>

2. audio books

You can find free, Ukraine audio books on this website: <https://4read.org/>

Another website that offers audio books is this one: <https://kazkowyjswit.pl/>

3. Digital library

This is the Digital Library of Ukrainian Literature, where you can find books, audio books and more: <https://www.ukrlib.com.ua/>

The Digital Library also has a Youtube-Channel where they publish audio books: <https://www.youtube.com/ukrlib>

We are always happy to help you find a place to spend your time, study, or find something new to read.
